

Global Security Operations Center Undergraduate/Graduate Student Intern

Division/Unit: Global Security Operations Center NYU Public Safety Operations	Supervisor: Sean Hackett Director, Global Security Operations Center
Number of Intern(s) Needed: 1	Preferred Education Level: Undergraduate/Graduate
Division Background: The Global Security Operations Center (GSOC) in NYU Campus Safety’s Global Resiliency and Security (GR & S) prepares global NYU constituencies to mitigate, respond to, and recover from any potential impacts to University governance, operations, and business while providing consistent, reliable, advanced security technology solutions, services, and subject matter expertise to proactively enhance community safety. The GSOC intern will work with the GSOC Director on different projects such as providing situational awareness through open-source intelligence, developing risk assessments, writing geopolitical strategic analysis, and assessing non-state actor’s intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance capabilities and potential threats to NYU location(s).
Internship Responsibilities: The intern will be an integral part of the Global Security Operations Center team by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning the concepts, discipline and practice of threat monitoring and risk mitigation in a Global Security Operations Center. • Becoming proficient in a range of proprietary databases and services to monitor the world for risks to the NYU global community. • Supporting Campus Safety GR & S in different projects and tasks. • Participating in Structured Analytic Technique (SAT) intelligence exercises. • Developing travel risk assessments, risk mitigations strategies, and briefings on geopolitical issues to both internal and external stakeholders. • Observing and assisting the Division during an emergency management operation. • Attending meetings with internal and external stakeholders. • Fostering and coordinating relationships within and external to the University to promote emergency preparedness. • Flexible work hours for one full academic semester. • Develop rudimentary geospatial analysis skills. • Deliver briefings on geopolitical developments to senior NYU Department of Campus Safety leadership.

Requirements/Special Skills Needed:

- Strong knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, and Powerpoint)
- Strong knowledge Google G Suite (Gmail, Docs, Drive, and Calendar)
- Strong attention to detail and organization.
- Strong writing and analysis skills.
- Receptive to feedback and willing to learn new programs and systems.
- Interest in Global Security Operations, Emergency Management, and Business Continuity.
- Ability to adjust own behavior to work efficiently and effectively.
- Strong communication skills to maintain a professional work relationship within the Division and External partnerships.

This is an unpaid internship.

However, credits are available to qualified students.

NYU Public Safety will provide the following:

- Work space and access to necessary equipment.
- Technical guidance for the internship project.
- Administrative support.
- Midpoint and final evaluations, including feedback to student.

Interested Applicants:

Email resume and cover letter to: sean.hackett@nyu.edu